

Cole Scandaglia currently serves as the Senior Legislative Representative and Transportation Policy Advisor for the International Brotherhood Teamsters. In this role, he handles all federal legislative and regulatory issues impacting the diverse Teamsters membership in the transportation sector, including commercial drivers, aviation, rail, and public transit.

Prior to joining the Teamsters, Scandaglia represented dozens of unions who are members of the Transportation Trades Department, AFL-CIO (TTD). Throughout his tenure at TTD, he worked on rail, aviation, maritime and commercial driving issues, as well as managing TTD's regulatory portfolio.

Scandaglia is a native of Chicago, Illinois, and holds a Bachelors and Masters in Public Policy from American University.
